

Scientific Advisory Committee for VET Research

The VPET Scientific Advisory Committee ensures the strategic alignment of VET research. It assesses and manages the projects undertaken by the leading houses and other strategically relevant projects.

Members of the Scientific Advisory Committee for VET research (State April 2024)

Academic experts covering a wide range of specialist areas sit on the Scientific Advisory Committee.

President

Prof. Christiane Spiel, Professor of Education Psychology and Evaluation, University of Vienna

Members

Prof. Dr. Stephan Abele, Faculty of Education, University of Dresden

Prof. Dr. Antje Barabasch, Research Field Teaching and Learning within the VPET system, Swiss Federal University for Vocational Education and Training, Zollikofen

Prof. Marius Busemeyer, Politics & Public Administration, University of Constance

Prof. Friedrich Hesse, Professor of Applied Cognitive Psychology and Media Psychology, University of Tübingen

Prof. Dr. Daniel Oesch, Life Course and Inequality Research Centre, University of Lausanne

Prof. Kerstin Pull, Faculty of Economics and Social Sciences, University of Tübingen

Prof. Jérôme Rossier, Faculty of Social and Political Sciences, University of Lausanne

Sabine Scheiben, Head of Continuing Education Unit, State Secretariat for Education, Research and Innovation (SERI), Bern

Bernhard Weber, Deputy Head of Labour Market & Social Policy Analyses, State Secretariat for Economic Affairs (SECO), Bern

Specialist staff: bbfo@sbfi.admin.ch